THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

The late Finance Minister, Mr. Hansen, has issued a manifesto to the effect that his successor, Dr. Romero, has fallen into an errror of 100,000,000$ gold in his statement of the national debt, and that consequently the total debt is not 407,000,000$, but a trifle over 300,000,000$. We incline to think that Mr. Hansen is right, and in the new edition of the Handbook it will be seen that the national debt is stated as follows:—

	$ gold
Foreign loans......	175,500,000
Free Banks.........	90,400,000
Internal loans......	37,700,000
Total....	303,600,000

In Dr. Romero's statement of the 25th inst. he appears to put down the bonds of the Free Banks at 190,000,000$, but this includes 100,000,000$ held by the Nat. Government, which might be burnt to-morrow without the country or the Treasury losing or gaining a single dollar. This will be clearer to our readers when we give them Mr. Hansen's note, which is as follows:—

B. Ayres, Nov. 26th.

The new Minister of Finance was doubtless animated by the most honourable intentions in his statement of the public debt, but he has evidently been misinformed by the persons who supplied him with his figures, and on this head I am in a position to point out the error, as I have had many years of experience in the Finance Department.

In my report, last August to Congress, I stated the national debt as follows:—

	$ gold
Foreign loans.....	304,959,000
Home debt.........	89,407,000
Total.........	294,366,000

This was the amount on March 31st 1892, and since then there may be 15 or 20 millions to add on account of Moratorio bonds and Madero Docks, but there is still a difference of about $100,000,000 between my statement and Dr Romero's. The error into which His Excellency has fallen is seen on a moment's consideration.

The Board of Public Credit puts down the actual issue of 4½ (Free Bank) bonds at $190,000,000, but this includes a bond of $50,000,000 deposited with the Caja de Conversion as guarantee for the notes of the National Bank, besides 35,000,000 of bonds to answer for the "clandestine issue" of April 1890 (afterwards made legal by the Finance Minister Uriburu) and $25,000,000 of similar bonds to guarantee issues of sundry Banks which had given "Pagares" to this amount.

These items are, therefore, merely nominal, since the Nation was both creditor and debtor, the Nation being owner of the National Bank and holding the Pagarés of the other Banks in question. So that virtually $100,000,000 of the 4½ bonds are withdrawn from circulation, and the balance is barely $90,000,000. In fact it is not so much, for the Bank of Buenos Ayres has delivered over $1,500,000 to the National Bank, now the property of the Nation, and the Treasury has also taken up $41,000,000 corresponding to notes issued by the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres and the Bank of Cordoba, and which said Bank have undertaken to cancel.

My statement, therefore, will be found an exact exposition of the financial condition of the country.

Emilio Hansen.

This being so we must reduce the annual service of debt by $4,500,000 gold, which would leave it $20,700,000 gold. But, as the total revenue is not likely to exceed $30,000,000 gold in 1893 we fully agree with Dr. Romero that the Argentine Republic cannot pay its coupons in gold from 1st January 1894. The expenditure last year left a deficit of $50,000,000 currency or $15,000,000 gold, a fact which is generally overlooked.

Moreover, Dr. Romero, on taking office finds himself face to face with existing obligations which amount to 30,000,000$ currency, whereas the balance in the Treasury is barely 2,500,000$ currency. How is this difference to be met? Even Dr. Romero does not suggest any means, nor does Mr. Hansen dispute the matter.

If Dr. Pellegrini had remained in office he would have allowed the issue of Moratorio bonds to go on until Dec. 31st 1893, and then informed Lord Rothschild and the Bank of England that the Republic was not in a position to resume the service of its debt. But, Dr. Romero thinks (and many of our readers will think the same) that it is more honest and straight-forward to come to an immediate understanding with the London bondholders for a suspension of the Moratorio and a new arrangement, on more equitable terms, whereby all the foreign loans and guarantees will be unified. It is premature now to discuss the basis of such unification, but we are convinced that any arrangement which may impose the payment of more than £150,000 monthly will prove as impossible as the Moratorio of January 1891.

LATEST FROM EUROPE

SIX DAYS' LATER.

London, Nov. 5th.

The latest intelligence from Ferrol is that her Majesty's ship Howe is fast on the rocks at the entrance to the harbour. Her bow is immersed at low water, and the propeller is two feet out of the water. The divers report a large hole abreast of the port stokehole. The ammunition, guns, and all heavy weights were yesterday removed from the vessel, and the salvage vessel are expected to arrive to-day. The Spanish authorities have given every assistance to the British admiral.

The continuation was published yesterday in Berlin of Dr. Blum's report of conversations with Prince Bismarck. The Prince is represented to have denied that he planned a war with France in 1875.

The Ottoman War Department has concluded a contract with a German firm for the supply of fifty million cartridges and a quantity of smokeless powder.

A Deputation, introduced by the Duke of Westminster, waited upon Mr. H. Gardner, Minister of Agriculture, yesterday, to urge that restrictions should be imposed upon the importation of Canadian cattle, in consequence of the outbreak of pleuro-pneumonia in Scotland, where one-half of the importation takes place. Mr. Gardner said that, after anxious consideration, the Department had come to the conclusion that the facts as regarded Canada were inconsistent with the reasonable security contemplated by the law, and that there was no alternative but to withdraw the free importation which Canada has enjoyed in the past. The order was already signed.

Sir Courtney Boyle, of the Board of Trade, last night received a Deputation of representatives of the principal Railway Companies, and of the Lancashire and Cheshire Conference, on the schedule of rates. The views of the traders and Companies were put before him, and he expressed a hope that there would not be a large number of cases of increase, but that there would be of decrease.

The eclipse of the moon was not seen in London last evening, owing to the unfavourable stateof the weather.

The execution of the sentence on the convict Neill has been respited for a week, to allow of an examination of the American and Canadian evidence.

At the Northampton Meeting yesterday; Mr. B. Robson's Irish Air won the Compton Welter Handicap, Mr. Sibarys' Delaval the Catesby Selling Handicap, Mr. C. H. Jolliffe's Pythia the Nene Welter Handicap, Mr. E. J. Percy's Irish Maid the Blisworth Selling Nursery Handicap, and Mr. C. J. Merry's Ammonite the Naseby Handicap Plate. Mr. Brechin's Wrinkles walked over for the Hartwell Plate.

The diamond brooch case in the Queen's Bench Division came to an end yesterday. Mr. Lockwood concluded his speech for Mrs. Leader, the Plaintiff. Mr. Justice Day summed up, and in his closing observations remarked that if the Jury thought Mrs. Smyth acted upon the reasonable belief that the brooch was hers and that Mrs. Leader had stolen it, the damages must be moderate. If, on the other hand, they were satisfied that the accusation was malicious, the damages would have to be of a very different character. The Jury, within half an hour, returned their verdict, which was for the Plaintiff, with five hundred pounds damages. The decision was greeted with applause.

The Money Market fell back yesterday, and closed at 1½ for call loans and 2⅜ per cent. for dissounts. Prices were quiet and steady on the Stock Exchange, with few or no movements of importance. Consols rose ⅛ for cash, to 97,97⅛.

SUNDAY'S ELECTIONS.

The municipal elections on Sunday, both here and in the province of B. Ayres, were attended with disturbances and, we regret to say, loss of life. In the Balvanera parish, two shots were heard in the side passage of the Church. People rushed to the spot and found Dr. Daniel Navarro and Mr. José Canessa wounded, the former with a revolver-bullet and the other mortally with two stabs. Canessa breathed his last in the arms of the priest, and his last words were to forgive his assailant. He was a young man, being about 30 years of age, unmarried. He lived with his mother, brothers and sisters in Calle Corrientes and was secretary to the Health Committee of the parish. Dr. Daniel Navarro is the president of the Radical Club of the Parish. Mr. Navarro was wounded in the head. He had a narrow escape, as another bullet went through his hat. Mr. Navarro, on being questioned, made the following statement: At 20 minutes past 8. I was in the vestibule of the Church, I turned round to one of the scrutineers and said that I hoped that everything would be honorably conducted. At that moment Mr. José Canessa came in and I reproached him for his partiality towards the Acuerdo candidate. He immediately whipped out his revolver and fired at me. I was only a few feet from him. The ball went through the rim of my hat, grazing the side of my head. Then turning round Canessa fired at Mr. Eduardo Gonzalez, the bullet going through his hat. Mr. Gonzalez threw himself upon Canessa and endeavoured to take the weapon from him. Canessa fired a second time at him but without hitting him. About 20 people came up and suddenly Canessa fell down. Somebody had stabbed him."

The confusion that attended this fray may well be imagined. The interior of the church was full of ladies who, on hearing the shots, got so frightened that many of them fainted, whilst others shrieked. The sacristan very prudently shut the door of the church, thus preventing people from rushing in.

In the Province the disturbances were of a more serious character. In Bolivar, for instance, the people, who are not overfond of the local police ever since the evictions made by the Municipality, attacked the police in the streets. The Commissary was wounded with a rifle-ball, and a number of policemen were placed "hors de combat." No further particulars have been received as the telegraph wires were cut from the outset. All that is known is that the Chief of Police ordered the Olavarria and other police forces to reinforce those of Bolivar. There is not a policeman left in Olavarria, where public order is maintained by ten national guards.

In Ayacucho the elections were suspended by the Intendente in view of the sanguinary incident reported in our last. The opposition, moreover, had armed themselves and taken up their position in the tower of the church

In reference to the sanguinary affair in Ayacucho the following are the latest particulars: On the arrival of the train at Ayacucho on Saturday morning the Commissary entered one carriage and took 10 or 12 individuals prisoners. He then went into another carriage and asked for Mr. Blanch. He was told that no such person was in that carriage. He then went into another and on asking the same question somebody put a bullet into his head, killing him outright. The Commissary's assistant, hearing the report, jumped into the carriage and was also fired upon. He was wounded in the side. The police fired on the train, dangerously wounding a little girl.

At Guamini a gentleman named Sastre, at the head of one hundred men, drove out the authorities. In fact, it was quite a stormy day for the province. Owing to the cutting of the wires, few particulars could be obtained of the disturbances in several districts.

The results of the municipal elections in this city were:—

OUR LONDON LETTER.

HOME POLITICS.

LORD SALISBURY'S MANIFESTO.

(From our own Correspondent)

Oct. 29th

The autumn campaign promises to be a severe prelude to the decisive encounter to take place when parliament meets. Mr. Chamberlain has gone to the Riviera for a few days' recruiting of his strength before entering the lists. Mr. Balfour is flying the bi-metallist flag and boom-de-aying the Indian drum in Manchester, whilst the Chief—the lord of Hatfield—in full panoply throws down the glove as champion of the Union and of the House of Lords. It is in pages of the National Review for November, where the crested helmet of the Marquess nods and the snort of his war-horse inspires his followers who are many, strong and wealthy. It was serious work they meant, when they paid down fifty thousand pounds for the Pall Mall Gazette. "We will have no Home Rule in Ireland" they say. "We will stand by the peers and Constitution;" and says Lord Salisbury "if the Constitution is to be changed, it shall not be changed by a wretched scratch majority of 38, but by the nation—by a referendum." "If" says his lordship "the existing House of Commons manages to pass a Home Rule Bill it shall not "bye Our Ladye" pass the Lords, until the nation directly commands. What the nation—the democracy—commands, the peers, like loyal Englishmen, will submit to; but meanwhile you shall dissolve and have a new election. Oh, oh! you—you Mr. Frederic Harrison, Mr. Gladstone's spokesman you talk of swamping the House of Lords by the creation of five hundred new peers. "Inject your 500 sweeps" if you will, but not one of the sweeps shall sit;" and for this Lord Salisbury says: "I have the precedent of the Scotch peers created in 1708, to whom the Lords refused admission on the plea of their subservience to the crown; and there is also the recent case of Lord Wensleydale. No, no, you, Mr.—I think Sir, your name is Harrison—and you Mr. Gladstone, we who represent all that is noble, grand and glorious in England's history, we are not going down like a house of cards before you and your five hundred sweeps; so, look to your lances, and God defend the right."

Yes, my lord, you are strong. We are bound to confess it. Your strength is not in your own prowess, but in your united following, whose banners are bright and clear, whose surcoats are distinguishable and whose mottoes are ligable, whilst we are a tagrag and bobtail with no particular banner but that of Home Rule, green and fresh, and fluttering high in our Irish battalions only, or in the Scotch division where the harp is erased by the lion. For the rest we have English and Welsh non-conformists troubled with a "conscience" and as frightened of papistry, as our shopkeeping scum are of the socialist flags in our Radical regiments. Our commercial contingent is troubled with "interests"—the rupee and markets. Our old middle-class Liberal squad that might once have been as invincible as the Ironsides is weakened by church missionary agitators, and preaching philanthropists. To lick this lot into shape requires a Cromwell; when our chief, alas! is only a Richelieu. The prospect would be bad indeed did we not believe the stars to be in our favour. Should Liberal wealth and respectability and much else that is neither wealthy nor respectable go over to the enemy on the eve of battle, we shall be temporarily defeated. But in that defeat is victory. The Tories will never recover the invasion of a discontented Radical contingent. The party has been already almost extinguished by an alliance with a mere knot of Liberal Unionists. The Tories will be dragged from one revolutionary measure to another, until Home Rule will simply come of itself, if Ireland is patient under a common adversity that might occur to the Liberal party within the next twelve months—I should say, the Gladstonian party.

Mr. Chamberlain has already posed in the Nineteenth Century as a state socialist. Is that an indication of what Toryism is to come to in a near future? I observe that the bluest of the blue tory organs, the Morning Post, speaks kindly of Mr. Chamberlain's article. But the Post rather sides with the Lord Randolph Churchill wing of the Tory party. Lord Randolph is now what the present Duke of Rutland was forty years ago, the chief of a clique of young men who imagined they could influence the masses by humouring their crude notions and joining in their sports. Only, Lord Randolph being up to date, eschews football and cricket to seize upon any popular fancy, such as protection, socialism or bimetallism, and turn it to the advantage of the ruling class. Lord Salisbury, believing that Providence, who feeds sparrows, will watch over the nobility, despises the trick, but yields. He, therefere, permits his lieutenant and nephew to go to Manchester to preach bimetallism as a means of raising prices, failing an import duty of 10s. a quarter on foreign corn. You must know that bimetallism is not a craze peculiar to Manchester merchants and operatives. The Suffolk farmers are of opinion that "boi-metallism" would improve their position a "soight." Meanwhile, until protection is established they have formed, or are forming, a federation to reduce wages. As for bimetallism the Economist of to-day asks Mr. Balfour, "why, if he wants to raise prices, he does not go further, as they have done in Argentina, and issue an inconvertible paper currency?" And as for Mr. Arthur James Balfour, he is a "soul." You know everything so quickly in Buenos Ayres, you may know better than I what a "soul" is. The "souls" I understand to be a new sect in fine society male and female, which has superseded theosophy and the new psychology. It proposes to publish a journal every six weeks. The first number is to appear in January. The "souls" are academic, superfine and personally independent of fact or substance such as gold, or silver, and the vulgar and practical ratios that may exist between them.

Like Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Mather writes in the Contemporary on the labour question. His panacea is to leave all to the Trades Union. What does all this mean? The landlord is practically extinct. The capitalist employer is going. It was rather amusing to me and gratifying, to hear an old political agent exclaim in a club smoking-room to-day:—"The Conservatives are nowhere; there are only two parties in England, the Liberals and the Socialists."

LOSS OF THE ROSALES.

U. S. S. Bennington,
Cadiz, Nov. 3.

My dear Consul Baker:

Some time ago I received a copy of the STANDARD containing some information in regard to the loss of the Rosales, which, I presumed, was forwarded by you. I have read other accounts of this disaster in various papers, some of which contained statements of officers who succeeded in reaching the shore. All accounts vary very much and none give the position of the Rosales when the disaster overtook her, or the course and distance the boat which reached the land ran. All accounts reflect more or less on the Bennington; some go so far as to say that she abandoned the distressed survivors while in open boats. There is nothing more abhorrent to any manly seaman than the idea of abandoning a comrade in distress at sea, and I cannot think anyone who knows anything of me would believe that I would do such a thing. We always stand ready to even succor our enemies and save their lives. From the Argentines we received nothing but kindness and courtesy while in their country, and it is a great grief to me that I should have been in the vicinity of those distressed officers and men without knowing it, so that I might do all in my power to aid them. I knew nothing of the disaster until we reached Bahia. We saw no boats nor anything to indicate that there was any one in distress. One account I read stated that the Bennington was seen on the morning of July 11, and the ship is described in a general way but not minutely enough to indicate that she was near. I enclose a tracing of a chart showing the track of the Bennington and Almirante Brown. The latter was obtained from that ship. I will here say that I have seen much of the two Argentine ships since we arrived in Europe. They left four days before I did and arrived at this port two days before arrived at Palos. My gain on them was by a decreased stay in port. Being longer ships their speed was not so reduced in bad weather as mine; then they are sheathed ships and had a clean bottem, while the Bennington has a steel bottom which was very foul, having been nine months out of dock. Captain Garcia gave it as his opinion that the Rosales could not have seen the Bennington; as to this I cannot say, since the course and distance of the Rosales after losing the Brown are not given, and all idea in this direction is mere conjecture. From the tracks, it will be seen that we did not approach that of the Argentine squadron until nearly up to Cape St. Catherine. The Argentines came out on the south side of the river close to Point Indio and Cape San Antonio. They were then driven away to the eastward by a westerly gale. The "Bennington" went to Montevideo, leaving there at 2.15 p.m. on the 10th, ran out north of English Bank and just south of Lobos, it being quite thick. When Maldonado light bore n.w. distant 15 miles, the "Bennington" steered east and ran seventy miles, when she headed n.e. This was to get a good offing and keep well clear of Cape Costillo, the weather being threatening. It is alleged that the "Bennington" was seen on the morning of the 11th; the weather then was "cloudy and rainy;" later in forenoon it is logged as "cloudy and with passing showers." Until 2 p.m. the wind is logged with a force of from 1 to 5. (1 to 12 scale.) After that it rapidly increased and by 5 p.m. it was blowiog a gale from S.E. The sea is logged as "moderate" up to 2 p.m. From 2 to 7 it is logged as 'rough' and from 7 to midnight as "heavy." This gale lasted four days. We hove-to during the night of the 11th, and early on the morning of the 12th we kept away and ran at reduced speed with storm sails set. By 2 p.m. on the 13th the sea had become immense; everything we passed was hove-to. We rolled at times by accurate observations 35 degrees one way and 25 the other; finally she gave a tremendous roll to leeward that must have been at least 40 degrees, and we hove her to again, this time for a day and a half. The Argentines escaped this gale; they also escaped more severe weather I had north of the Cape de Verdes. So far as recognizing the "Bennington" is concerned it may be remarked that she was perfectly familiar to the Argentine officers. It ought to be known that a ship can be seen much farther from a boat than the latter can be seen from the ship. Also that rockets and firearms cannot be considered good signals for day use at a distance. If I could have seen them I could easily have saved the poor fsllows who were drowned while landing, and perhaps others that probably lost their lives on the night of the 11th when the gale was severe. At all events, I give you all the information I have, and you will then be in a position to defend the "Bennington."

Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) R. B. Bradford,
Comg. "Bennington."

CAMPANA BAND OF HOPE.

Thanks to the kindness of the Locomotive Superintendent of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway, H. Pearce, Esq., the Campana Band of Hope were enabled, on Friday evening, 25th inst., to hold their first public entertainment in the lecture-room of the Mechanic's Institute connected with the Railway. Notwithstanding the bad weather, upwards of 100 persons, young and old assembled.

The first piece rendered was a rousing chorus by the children's choir, entitled "Sound the Battle-Cry!" which showed careful training and practice. It would be as well to state here that there was one serious drawback, and that was the want of instrumental music. It was admitted by all that the singing of the choruses, part-songs and solos, reflected great credit on Mr. Fosterjohn for his untiring efforts in training the performers. Prayer was then offered up by the President, Mr. H. Martin, after which, in a few trite remarks, he thanked the audience for their attendance, and referred to the organization and its progress since it first started in February last, starting with 13 members and now having 74 names on its muster-roll. "A Prologue" was then well read by Llewellyn Roberts, being an appropriate introduction to the programme. "Our Fathers were True-hearted Men," a solo, was then sung by Mr. Fosterjohn. He also favoured us at the close of the programme with another beautiful song, "Tempted and Tried." Both these songs were sung with taste and sweetness of tone. Following this, we were treated to a dialogue by ten little girls and boys entitled "Temperance Birds," the little ones reciting in a manner that showed they had been well trained. Rosie Ambler then favoured us with a solo, "Father, don't you hear the Angels?" in which she was joined by a chorus of 25 voices, all singing in a remarkable unison. "The Drunkard's Story" was then recited by Mr. H. Martin, and later on he recited "Honest Publicans." Both these pieces were given with dramatic effect and in Mr. Martin's usual style. The choir then sung "Be kind to thy Mother" with marked approbation. This was followed by a piece entitled "A Temperance Meeting on a Pigstye." This was very amusing, making a good hit; six boys and two men took part in this. Miss Annie Windsor then recited "Tell me the old, old Story," immediately following the singing of a verse of the hymn of that name. The part-song "Away with the Wine!" then sung, and received a well-deserved encore. Anny Griffiths then sung "Sign the Pledge for Mother's sake," which was joined in by the choir and was loudly applauded, Anny receiving a pretty bouquet at the close of the song. Then came the piece entitled "A Box on the Ear!" which proved effectual in making the three principal actors sign the pledge. After singing the chorus "Temperance Bells" and a few concluding remarks from the President, the entertainment was brought to a close by singing the Doxology and pronouncing the Benediction. Hopes have been expressed that the entertainment would be repeated at an early date.

PARAGUAY RAILWAY.

Sir,

On my recent return to London, my attention has been called to extracts from the Buenos Ayres STANDARD, with comment; in your number of 1st Oct. 1892.

On behalf of my board, I consider it, for the present, sufficient to say that the statements made by the Buenos Ayres STANDARD, as well as those contained in the speech of Deputy Irala, are either entirely devoid of foundation or seriously misrepresent the facts. What is of most importance is, that it should be understood that the relations of this company with the Government are most amicable. The intimation made to you by the company of the progress of negotiations for the settlement of the questions relating to the guarantee is a sufficient proof of this When the proper time comes the whole of the facts will be laid before the shareholders and others interested in the matter.

I am, Sir,
E. M. Underdown,
Chairman.

CONGRESS.

THE DEPUTIES.

Dr. Lastra took the chair at 3 p.m.

The Beet Root Bounty Bill was approved with the addendum that the growers must have over 25 acres under cultivation and produce 25,000 kilogrames to be entitled to the bounty.

Another Article was added to the Bill providing that the Bounty can also be claimed under Article 3.

The House went into "cuarto intermedio" at 4.30 p.m. and did not meet again.

There is a motion for the next sitting to raise the amount of Bounty to $400,000, as extended to the whole republic.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Opera House was bursting with youth, beauty, middle-age, fashion, wealth, etc. last night. It was the great amateur success of the season, and actors, audience, porters and policemen were all in the highest spirits. It "took the cake" and no mistake. More to-morrow.

Whew! The Minister of the Interior has discovered a trifling mistake of $250,000 against the State in the contract with engineer Bergalli for dredging the Riachuelo, and has sent it to the Fiscal, to see what that gentleman will say about it.

The week opened yesterday with a "Juicio Final" feeling in all quarters, owing to the lamentable state of the National finances revealed by Dr. Romero; still, the general public keep their pecker up and say that the country will go ahead in spite of all the Government blunders "habido y por haber." We really think so too. But our London friends must feel queer; as they have a way of their own of looking at the affairs of this fine country.

Just as we foretold. There were funerals yesterday in connection with Sunday's Municipal elections here and in the provinces. See another column, and believe.

We have a telegram from London and a letter for Miss Bartlett.

We are requested to call attention to the service in St. Peter's Anglican Church at Flores to-morrow. St. Andrew's Day. Matins and Communion at 7.15 a. m. Service of Intercession for Foreign Missions at 5 p. m.

The address of Mr. O'Reilly, who teaches Spanish and all other modern languages in less than no time, is 521 Calle Cangallo.

We decline to enter into an apparently interesting dispute as to the respective claims of Messrs. S. and U. to the agency of a famous brand of whiskey in this market.

The Y.M.C.A. request us to call attention to the midday prayer-meeting to be held on Thursday next from 12 to 1 p.m. at 521 Cangallo.

There is a grand performance tonight in the Odeon Theatre for the Cronistas, and every man woman and promising child who reads a newspaper is in duty bound to go; as what would a paper be without the "cronica"? Worse than nothing.

Murder statistics. In Misiones Territory 17 murders, 17 attempts at murder, and 10 robberies have been committed since the 1st of January 1890. Not bad for such a sparsely populated territory.

We thank Messrs. Mackern and Shine for late papers from England, to 5th inst.

There is a lot of "mistaken patriotism" in this country, as we all know to the cost of our insides, through the patriotic blunder that started "industrias nacionales." In New Zealand mistaken patriotism has also proved a curse. Two brothers named Brittan, from Bristol, original settlers in New Zealand, imported some watercress and with great delight sowed it in the River Avon near the town of Christchurch, now the capital of the province of Canterbury. There the beautifully clear water was soon fringed with the appetizing plant which extended itself so rapidly that in a short time it caused the level of the river to rise from 2 to 3 feet, and soon the waters threatened to flood the town. Some of these watercress roots were over twenty feet long and they grew so thickly together that from 20 to 30 men had to be employed with scythes and chains to drag the river every year and weed them out; and in fact it now costs the municipality £1,000 a year to keep the river moderately clear of watercress.

The Baron Reinach of the Panama Canal scandal was the same illustrious nobleman whose name was prominent in the Paris loan and "flying stamp" business in Montevideo. The Baron has flown to another world instead of trying to set President Herrera's comical stamps flying in this.

Messrs. Stiller and Mortlock sent round a nice Almanack for 1893 yesterday, and we thank them for the copy they were kind enough to send us.

Those who live in the northern suburbs and who intend being present at the German Dramatic Club's performance on Friday night in the Onrubia Theatre, will read with pleasure a notice from the Central Argentine Railway in another column.

O'Kill the Great will take his benefit in the Zarzuela Theatre to-morrow night, as he is about to leave for Montevideo. There has never been such a genuine public favourite in this city; and those who have obtained such enjoyment from his wonderful performances should crowd the theatre to-night to make a full farewell purse for him.

At last they have had a fairly robust cyclone, in the colonies San José and San Agustin. Several houses were blown down, others unroofed, and crops destroyed. Sad to relate, the phenomenon involves the loss of six lives; three little children and three adults.

His Holiness the Pope has expressed the opinion that war in Europe is inevitable. This is serious; as Leo the XIIIth has proved himself to be one of the most far-sighted staiesmen living. The break-up of the Triple Alliance will perhaps be the signal for the dreadful fray, for dreadful it will be.

The list of Generals, Admirals, Commodores, Colonels etc., etc., on whole and half pay published yesterday by our Argentine colleagues reads like that of a European Power of at least the second class, and is enough to make the hair of Argentine Bondholders fall out in handfuls. How can the country pay a cent of its debts with such a costly army and navy?

Meardi has made up his mind that he won't be shot, and is in better spirits!! The miscreant wants to know if convicts are treated well in the Penitentiary. Yes, far too well.

There seems to be poison in seidlitz powders, pills, cakes and everything just now. A whole family at Flores were nearly "done for" on Saturday through eating cakes bought at a shop in Calle Artes, between Corrientes and Lavalle.

Murder is sta'king about rampant. A baker was killed on Saturday in Calle Artes because be would not allow his daughter to marry a former assistant of his. A Frenchman was slaughtered the same night at the Boca by men who had been drinking with him. Every street and corner of this city is fast becoming stained with human gore.

Interesting to every young man, but especially to those out in the camp, where no good teachers can be had for either love or money. The English Book Exchange, at 333 Florida, has received Cassell's New Popular Educator, new, augmented and improved edition 1892."

The Gymnastic fiestas in Plaza Euskara on Sunday were simply splendid, and a thundering success, in spite of the abominable weather. The boys were all in neat uniforms and excellently drilled by M. Pourteau, who deserves great credit for the success of the fete. There was an enormous crowd of the families and friends of the boys present. President Peña and the Ministers of War and Education occupied the "palco de honor." Dr. Cantilo, President of the Gymnastic Club, made a soul-stirring speech. The crack battalion of the lot was the "Maipu," the orphan boys of the Merced, and the little fellows were cheered to the echo.

Most people will agree with the following remarks about old photographs: It should be held a punishable offence to preserve any photograph beyond ten years; an offence which should rank on the same legal footing as a libel. Is there anything more painful than to be suddenly confronted with one's own image of ten years' back in the album of a friend? Is it possible, one asks, that one ever wore such peculiar garments, brushed one's hair after so hateful a fashion, or simpered with such foolish effusion? Some people might think it rather a pleasing chance to come across their picture, taken at a time when they themselves were so much younger, and their charms presumably so much the more fresh. When some unlucky day, they do meet their photograph, they are doomed to grievous disappointment.

London papers mention an effectual cure for Cholera. Under the direction of Dr. Lauenstein. the specific prescribed by an English chemist, Richard Weaver, 24 High Holborn London W. C., known as periodate crystals, was recently introduced into the cholera wards of the Seamen's Hospital at Hamburg, after a series of adequate tests had given very satisfactory results. The remedy, which had previously been recommended by Sir Andrew Clark in London, instantaneously destroys the cholera bacillus, and is declared to be perfectly innocuous to man. It is claimed that in the early stages of cholera periodate is successful in 95 per cent. of the cases in which it is employed, and even in the later stages of the disease cures 70 per cent of the patients treated. The remedy has been tested at the bacteriological laboratories at Berlin, and is declared to be efficacious in all maladies of microbic origin, inasmuch as it destroys the germs while it is in itself in no way deleterious to the human subject.

ON 'CHANGE.

Monday, Novmeber 28th 1892.
Gold Premium.

First Ring......... 183 50%
Second Ring....... 185.50%

The gold market ruled active and firm to-day. The Finance Minister's note has had the desired effect; the fall in gold has been checked and confidence has disappeared. The most enthusiastic bears have turned bulls and the current of the speculation bullish. One million and a quarter gold dollars were sold to-day at the first ring; the business for cash exceeded four hundred thousand dollars; the premium opened at 178% and closed at 183 50%. Three hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month; the market opened at 177.50%, rose to 183.50%, and closed at 183%. About half a million changed hands for the end of December; the price opened at 175%, rose to 182%, and closed at 181%. Rates for January were quite nominal.

Patriotic Bonds were weak and dull at 73.70, and Internal Bonds at 68. Catalinas were slightly more active at 8.80; about three thousand shares were sold. La Plata Cedulas were very weak at 32 to 32.50.

Exchange ruled dull and nominal at 47½d. Discounts were very easy.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

Mr. Charles Olmi, the popular auctioneer, will sell at auction to-morrow (Tuesday) at 1 p.m. the valuable furniture of the late Mr. Bartolomé Viale, in Calle General Viamonte 783. The furniture is of the choicest kind and will draw a crowd of bidders: the catalogue is exhaustive and embraces several hundred articles to suit all tastes.

Mr. Charles M. Nolasco has applied to the National Government for authority to extend and repair the bridge over the Rio Quinto. These works are to be carried out at the expense of the company which Mr. Nolasco represents and which enjoys a concession for cutting of timber at Villa Mercedes in San Luis. It appears that the present bridge is not strong enough to support the weight of the small locomotives of the company, weighing 10 tons each.

Ex-Minister Hansen has published a letter correcting the figures of the National balance-sheet produced by Minister Romero. We refer our readers to our leading column. Mr. Hansen is quite right: the figures in the National balance-sheet are misleading, calculated to make the public believe that the Government owes much more than it does. Minister Romero should have explained in his note that one hundred millions of the gold debt were merely nominal.

The Rosario Railway Company have filed a petition to Government praying that the Engineers' Department be authorised to approve any modifications in the details of the plans of the swinging-bridges across the San Fernando Canal and the Tigre Riacho. Such a measure would lead to avoid delay in the prosecution of this important work.

Engineer Julio Ringuelet has been authorised to transport a kilometre of railway material from Dean Funes to Catamarca, for the Chumbicha Railway.

Messrs. Kelsey & Co. sold to-day at the Central Market several lots of cross, Lincoln wool with caretilla for the Curumalan estancia, amounting to 130,000 kilos at $8 and $7.75; they also sold 10,000 kilos fine wool from Mercedes at $7.80.

The following is the Budget of Brazil for 1893:—

Department of Justice and Internal Affairs	13,594,411$988

We take the following from our London exchanges:—

"Movements in the Internationals have been mostly in a downward direction, thanks to operations connected with the Paris Settlement, and to the advance in the discount rate of the Bank of Germany. Russian Fours have been conspicuously weak at a reduction of ⅛, the negotiations for the new loan being again reported broken off, and this time finally, it is said. Italians, Hungarians, Portuguese, Turkish issues and Tintos are all lower: but Egyptian Unified exceptionally holds its own, and is now quoted 99¾. Greeks also have risen, the 1884 Loan 3¼, while both the Monopoly and Rentes are the turn better. The Buenos Ayres gold premium comes a point down at 212 per cent., and Argentine descriptions, after a period of dulness in the early hours, hardened up and closed steady at previous figures. The Railway stocks were inclined to stiffen again after the shake-out of the past two days, Central Argentines recovering 1¼, to 72¼. But the strongest stocks in that corner are now the issues of the Buenos Ayres Western, the shares being 9¼ bid ex the dividend, or equivalent to 9¾ with the dividend, while the Fives (the latest Baring issue) are quoted 105½-6. On the other hand, Buenos Ayres Great Southern is a couple of points down. Brazilians have been disposed to recede on the quotation of the Rio exchange lower at 14⅞d again. The premium on the new Chilian loan has recovered to three once more.

"Mr. R. J. Neild, presiding over the meeting of the Entre-Rios Railways Company, stated that the interest on the bonds handed over by the Government had been collected, with the result that the deficit of £1,800 for the five months ending in June was covered, and that there was a sufficient balance to allow of the payment of a dividend on the preference shares at the rate of 2 per cent. for that period.

"At a meeting of the debenture holders of the Anglo-Paraguayan Land Company, Sir Edward Thornton presiding, a resolution was passed consenting to forego payment of interest for the next three years, and to receive in lieu thereof debenture stock equivalent to amount of the interest surrendered. A further resolution was also pased authorising the company to raise £10,000, to rank in priority of the present debenture stock.

"At the fourth ordinary general meeting of the Argentine Southern Land Company, Colonel Heyworth presiding, the motion for the adoption of the report and accounts was, after some discussion, carried. A resolution was, however, passed appointing a committee to confer with the directors on the affairs of the company, and to report to a future meeting."

The remarks in the London financial papers, concerning the rumoured revolutions in the Argentine Republic, are most amusing. One paper says:—

"Any trifling disturbance occurring in outlying provinces in the Republic was magnified into "revolution." Absolutely false stories of this kind were set afloat one day, to be contradicted the next. One day we were told that the troops at Buenos Ayres itself were under arms, and all the supporters of order were on the "qui vive" to repel an impending assault from "rebels," who were advancing upon the city from somewhere or another. It was all mere moonshine. It is no wonder that people are becoming callous to the stories of Argentine "revolutions" when this is the way in which they are served. At another point, if we recollect rightly, it was alleged that "twenty-five citizens" had "captured" the Governor; and this was another "revolution." We recollect some months ago coming across a journal published in Spain, which, availing itself of some news from England, declared that there was a "revolution' at Eastbourne, "apropos" of the Salvation Army proceedings there! Perhaps there was, but it was confined to Eastbourne!"

Aother colleague gives the following respecting the Santiago revolution:—

"There is a disposition in the market to regard the advance now established in Argentine stocks generally as quite as much as justified pending further developments, and profit-taking is consequently indulged in freely by recent buyers. But the reported insurrection in the province of Santiago del Estero is scoffed at. According to the market epigram, "It is the same two old women again, fighting outside a public house."

Although we don't think there are any large shareholders of the Argentine Southern Land Company in this market, still the advices received by the last mail may be found interesting; we believe th[illegible]s belonging to the company are [illegible]r Chubut and also near Nahuelhuapi:—

"Colonel Laurence Heyworth in proposing the adoption of the Report and accounts, remarked that much of the anxiety as to the future success of their undertaking had been dissipated, and the Directors were now able to present a Report of an encouraging nature. Six of the concessions acquired by the Company had now been surveyed and approved by the Government. Having gone through every item in the accounts, he said he thought the result was not altogether discouraging. In a company like that they could not jump into profits in two or even three years. His experience with a similar Company was that for seven years they received nothing, but when the time of prosperity came, the £1 shares, which were then at 2s-6d., went up to £6. That was what would occur in their Company if they only had patience. The Report and accounts were not passed, the meeting standing adjourned till such time as the Committee should be prepared to present their Report."

We find in the London papers that the directors of the Argentine Land and Investment Company have declared a dividend of 2 shillings a share on the preference shares. We believe the lands of this company are out somewhere beyond Trenquelauquen.

The live cattle trade with Rio Janeyro promises to be a very important business. It seems that last week they were run out of fresh beef in Rio, and no beefsteaks to be had in the Rio market. The South American Meat Company has been shipping splendid "novillos" to Rio. The s. s. Ovingdean Grange took up enough of fat animals to supply the market for a few days. Sr. Correa de Brito, who has arrived from Rio, was welcomed on 'Change; he represents the Brazilian Frigorifique Company and has 6 steamers for the trade.

People who have business pending before Congress should go to the office of the Secretary of the Senate and see the numbers of the "expedientes" or "solicitudes" that are returned to the petitioners—over 200—and we have no room to make out the list or give the numbers.

The sale of 50 certificates Banco de Italia y Rio de la Plata at 33 is reported; the par of the certificates is 40, which makes the discount on these certificates much higher than on the fully paid up shares of the bank, according to the last quotations. Some fully paid shares sold at 96.

The news from the Santa Fe colonies about the crops is excellent, and hundreds of Italians are arriving up there daily and waited for at the station by the colonists, who hire them at once. The Italian Minister here, we are quite sure, has heard of the scandalous attack by a band of armed "gauchos" on the store of Messrs Rabarino and Company in the colony Crispi; we believe they sacked the house; and the worst feature is that the people who defended the house are all arrested, whilst the band of robbers has escaped scot-free. Verily these colonies want vigilance committees on the California scale.

The scandalous Santa Fe cereal export tax still stands, spite of all the protests, lawsuits, etc., and in the new Santa Fe budget is estimated to give next year 500.000 m/n. All the Rosario Merchants complain of the great delay of the Supreme Federal Court in giving judgment. We believe that the finale will be the tax next year must be paid, although all the world knows that it is contrary to the very Constitution of the Nation. And what, we ask, becomes of all the money collected by this Santa Fe Government, since even the "vigilantes" are paid in paper stamps. We fear we must admit that Home Rule in Santa Fe has proved a dead failure; the province should be governed by a Prefect or Intendente, and its confounded and expensive form of Government abolished.

About nine hundred thousand gold dollars were sold at the second ring in a very rising market. A quarter of a million was sold for to-morrow, the premium rising to 190%, and closing at 185 50%. Operations for the end of the month embraced three hundred thousand dollars, closing at 185%. The premium for the end of December closed at 183.50%. Stocks and shares were neglected.

Cheques of the Provincial Bank closed at 36% discount; those of the National Bank at 12% discount. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank closed at 22% of their face value.

The French packet Portugal arrived at Montevideo to-day.

The Pacific Railway Company has presented a bill to Government for £80,928, guarantee on the line from April to September. Government has sent it back, to be revised by the Interventor, and reminding the Company that it has not lodged 50 per cent of its gross receipts, as provided by law.

The London & Brazilian Bank moved to-day from its rather obsolete position in the Calle San Martin, blocked by booksellers' shops and auctioneering marts, to the banking quarter in the alle Piedad where it is now at home with its confreres. We congratulate the manager on the change, and hope to soon see the bank installed at the great banking corner where it owns what may be termed the most valuable property in town—the site of the old National Bank in the days of the Roca Government.

SPLENDID PROPERTY
A most comfortable palace which must be visited by all
877-MALABIA-877
(between Charcas and General Mansilla.)
11 1/2 yards front by 80 1/4 deep.
8 magnificent rooms, splendid bathroom 2 w.c., kitchen, coach house, stable, forage deposit, rolling ground, ample garden with summer room (glorieta), corridors, vestibule, plastered ceilings and boarded floors (in hard pitch pine) paved street, blind doors, gas and water pipe, 2 blocks from the important Santa Fe Boulevard, 6 from Palermo and 1 from the tram.
New house, admirably built, all in lime, beams of hard wood with entry for carriage, electric bells and all modern conveniences. The neighbourhood is aristocratic, the house is built on high land, dry, hygienic and is airy and well ventilated.
It is a comfortable palace.
It is mortgaged in $20,000 m/n legales in Cedulas C Nacionales, and that will be the upset price.
Splendid opportunity to obtain a really fine house, almost without any disbursement, to become proprietor without cash, as there are 25 years to pay the value of the Shares to the Bank in quarterly amortizations
On Sunday 4th of December at 5 o'clock in the afternoon
I will sell by public auction by order of the owner who leaves the country, this grand property, with the lowermost upset price of the hypoteca which is as I say 20,000 Cedulas C Nationals.
Very seldom or never is offered to the public the sale of a property in such favourable conditions as this, to obtain a fine property without capital, and only because the owner has to leave the country.
Although unnecessary, I must say that the property will be sold for any offer exceeding the upset price.
The house is occupied actually, but can be visited three days before the sale. I very much recommend intending purchaser to visit it carefully and examine the many conveniences it possesses. To see the deeds and Bank Book apply at my offices

A ver[illegible] rece[illegible] wound up the most successful amateur season [illegible] ever seen in English-speak[illegible] circles in the way of music and the [illegible]ama, we are glad to put publicly a question put to us yesterday by a leading merchant and estanciero, which was this: "Have we enough musical amateur talent in our community to give next year, of course for charitable purposes, one of Sullivan's English operas?" Our answer was "Undoubtedly; enough and to spare for something better of the Italian school by way of "postre." Now ladies and gentlemen, what do you say? Tip us a line on the point.

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—"Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in quarter-pound packets, by Grocers, labelled thus:

'BAVARIA' AND 'PILSEN'

Which have proved such a success.

ANALYSIS

made by Mr. Francisco P. Lavalle of the National Department of Hygiene.

The undersigned certifies that he has examined two samples of Beer, named "BAVARIA" and "PILSEN" which were sent by Mr. John Russell, General Manager of Bieckert's Brewery Company Limited, with the following result:—

	BAVARIA	PILSEN
Density.........	1.018	1.011
Alcohol per 100 in volume....	4.50	4.65
Extract per 1000	59.05	46 85
Ash „	2.90	2 50
Sugar(reducing)	6.16	8.33
Acidity in lactic acid.........	1.22	1.27
Colouring matter............	toasted malt	toasted malt
Bitter matter ..	and hops	and hops
Preserving matter	does not contain	does not contain
Phosphoric acid per 1000......	0.38	0 43

From the above analysis it can be seen:—

1st. That the two samples do not contain any substance injurious to health.

2nd. That both are good and fit for consumption.

3rd. That due to their general composition they are similar to the imported beers that bear the same brand
